PART ONE GENERAL PROVISIONS

Chapter One

SUBJECT MATTER, SCOPE OF TAXATION AND TAXABLE PERSONS

Subject Matter of Act

Article 1. This Act regulates taxation of income accruing to natural persons, including income from activity in a sole-trader capacity.

Scope of Taxation

Article 2. Taxation under this Act shall apply to income accruing to resident and non-resident natural persons.

Taxable Persons

Article 3. Taxable persons under this Act shall be:

1. any resident and non-resident natural persons, who are liable to taxes under this Act;
2. any resident and non-resident persons, who are obliged to withhold and remit taxes under this Act.

Resident Natural Persons

Article 4. (1) "Resident natural person" regardless of nationality, shall be any person:

1. who has a permanent address in Bulgaria, or
2. who is present within the territory of Bulgaria for a period exceeding 183 days in any twelve-month period, or
3. who is sent abroad by the Bulgarian State, by bodies and/or organisations thereof, by Bulgarian enterprises, and the members of the family of any such person, or
4. whose centre of vital interests is situated in Bulgaria.

(2) For the purposes of Item 2 of Paragraph (1), a person shall be deemed to be a resident during the year wherewithin the presence thereof in Bulgaria exceeds 183 days. The day of exit from and the day of entry into the country shall be treated separately as days of presence in the country.

(3) For the purposes of Item 2 of Paragraph (1), the period of residence in Bulgaria for the sole purpose of study or medical treatment shall not be deemed to be a presence in Bulgaria.

(4) For the purposes of Item 4 of Paragraph (1), the centre of vital interests shall be situated in Bulgaria where the interests of the person are closely related to the country. Upon determination of such interests, consideration may be given to family, property, the place from which the person carries out a labour, professional or economic activity, and the place from which the person manages the property thereof.

(5) Any person, who has a permanent address in Bulgaria but whose centre of vital interests is not situated in the country, shall not be a resident natural person.

Non-resident Natural Persons

Article 5. "Non-resident natural person" shall be any person who is not a resident person within the meaning given by Article 4 herein.

Liability for Tax of Resident Natural Persons

Article 6. Any resident natural person shall be liable to taxes in respect of any income acquired thereby from sources inside and outside the Republic of Bulgaria.

Liability for Tax of Non-resident Natural Persons

Article 7. Any non-resident natural person shall be liable to taxes in respect of any income acquired thereby from sources inside the Republic of Bulgaria.

Sources of Income inside Republic of Bulgaria

Article 8. (1) Any income derived from economic activity carried out through a fixed base within the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria or from disposition of the property of any such fixed base shall have its source inside the Republic of Bulgaria.

(2) Any income derived from work performed within the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, or from services performed within the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, shall have its source inside the Republic of Bulgaria.

(3) Any dividends and share in any liquidation surplus, arising from participating interests in resident legal persons and unincorporated associations, including agreements on joint activity, shall have their source inside the Republic of Bulgaria.

(4) Any income derived from transfer of the enterprise of a sole trader registered in the Republic of Bulgaria shall have its source inside the Republic of Bulgaria, regardless of whether the transferor is a resident person.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) Any prizes and remunerations for activity performed within the territory of the country by non-resident natural persons who are public figures, or such active in science, art, culture and sports, including where the income has been paid/charged through a third party, such as a performer-management agency, a production company and other intermediaries, shall have its source inside the country.

(6) The following income, charged/paid by resident persons, by representative offices, as well as by a permanent establishment or a fixed base in the Republic of Bulgaria, shall likewise have its source inside the Republic of Bulgaria:

1. any damages and indemnities accruing in lieu of or together with another income from a source inside the Republic of Bulgaria;

2. any cash prizes and merchandise awards awarded at games, competitions and contests which are not provided by an employer or a commissioning entity;

3. any remunerations other than remunerations under employment relationships, paid to: an employee or a member of a management or supervisory body of a Bulgarian legal person, of a subsidiary wholly owned by a non-resident person, an employee of a representative office of a non-resident person, or to any other person who performs identical or similar functions;

4. any interest payments, including interest under a lease contract;

5. any income from rent or other provision for use of movable or immovable property;

6. any payments received under franchising agreements and factoring contracts;

7. any copyright and licence royalties;

8. any technical assistance fees;

9. any compensations under enterprise management and control contracts;

10. (new, SG No. 113/2007) any scholarships for study in Bulgaria and abroad;

11. (new, SG No. 113/2007) any income from social and commercial insurance.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) Any income covered under Paragraph (6), which is charged by resident legal persons or by resident sole traders through a permanent establishment or a fixed base outside the country or which are paid by resident natural persons through a fixed base outside the country, shall not have its source inside the country.

(8) Any income derived from shares, interests, compensation instruments, investment vouchers and other financial assets, issued by the Bulgarian State, the municipalities, resident legal persons, unincorporated associations and other forms of joint activity, as well as from any transactions therein, shall have its source inside Bulgaria.

(9) Any income derived from agriculture, forestry, hunting ground management and fisheries within the territory of the country shall have its source inside the country.

(10) Any income derived from use, sale, exchange or other transfer of immovable property, including any such transfer of an undivided interest in or a limited right in rem to any such property situated within the territory of the country, shall have its source inside the country.

(11) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No. 1/2014 effective 1.01.2014) Penalties and indemnities of any kind, excluding benefits under insurance policies, charged by resident legal persons, resident sole traders or non-resident legal persons and sole traders through a permanent establishment or a fixed base in the country in favour of non-resident natural persons established in preferential tax treatment jurisdictions, shall be income having its source in Bulgaria.

(12) (Renumbered from Paragraph (11), SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) Upon determination of the source of income under this Article, the place of payment of the income shall be ignored.

Documenting and Accounting for Income

Article 9. (1) (Amended, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013) The taxable persons shall be obliged to register and account for any sale of goods and services as effected at retail outlets by means of issuing a fiscal cash receipt printed by a fiscal device (fiscal slip) or by means of issuing a cash receipt from an integrated automated commercial activity management system (system receipt) according to a procedure established by an ordinance of the Minister of Finance, except where the payment is effected by bank transfer or through an offset.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 23/2013, effective 8.03.2013, amended, SG No 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) Any taxable persons, who are not obliged to issue a fiscal cash receipt printed by a fiscal device or a cash receipt from an integrated automated commercial activity management system according to Paragraph (1), shall issue a document on the income acquired thereby from sources referred to in Items 3 and 4 of Article 10 (1) herein, containing the essential elements covered under Article 6 (3) of the Accountancy Act. The said document shall be issued in two copies, one copy being provided to the payer of the income and the second copy being kept by the natural person.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 99/2011, effective 16.12.2011, amended, SG No 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) The document referred to in Paragraph (2) shall not be issued where:

1. the payer issues a Statement of Amounts Paid, as provided for this Act, in respect of the income, or
2. a final tax has been levied on the income according to the procedure established by Chapter Six herein, or
3. the income is exempted from taxation in pursuance of Item 24 of Article 13 (1) herein, or
4. the income has been paid into a bank account of the natural person, except in the cases referred to in Paragraph (4).

(4) (New, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) Where the payer of income under Item 3 of Article 10 (1) is an enterprise or a self-insured person which or who is obliged to apply the Accountancy Act and to issue a Statement of Amounts Paid in pursuance of Article 45 (6) herein, the natural person who has acquired the income shall include the essential elements referred to in Item 3 of Article 6 (1) of the Accountancy Act in the document referred to in Paragraph (2).

In such cases, the income shall be deemed to be acquired by the natural person on the date of entry of the reduction of capital in the Commercial Register and shall be taxed according to the procedure established by Article 33 herein, unless exempted from taxation according to the procedure established by Paragraph (1).

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph (4), amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No 100/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 12/2015) The provisions of Paragraphs (1), (2) and (4) shall not apply to any income accruing from economic activity in a merchant capacity within the meaning given by the Commerce Act, including in a sole-trader capacity, nor to any natural persons registered as farmers who determine taxable income under Article 26 herein.

Taxation of Income

Article 14. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011) A tax on the aggregate annual tax base shall be levied on the income covered under Chapter Five herein which has been acquired during the tax year, with the exception of the income from economic activity in a sole-trader capacity, and on the income from other economic activity referred to in Article 29a herein.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011) A tax on the annual tax base under Article 28 herein shall be levied on the income from economic activity in a sole-trader capacity and on the income from other economic activity referred to in Article 29a herein.

(3) A final tax shall be levied on the income covered under Chapter Six herein.

(4) Natural persons, including sole traders, shall be liable to a licence tax for income from licence activities under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act. The persons shall be taxed on the income from any other activities according to the procedure established by this Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 32/2016, effective 1.01.2017) A tax on passenger transport by taxi shall be levied according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act on any sole traders who are treated as taxable persons within the meaning given by Article 61s of the said Act. The persons shall be taxed on the income from any other activities, with the exception of the cases under Paragraph (4), according to the procedure established by this Act.

PART TWO AGGREGATE ANNUAL TAX BASE

Chapter Three GENERAL PROVISIONS

Tax Year

Article 15. The tax year shall be concurrent with the calendar year.

Determination of Taxable Income and of Tax Base

Article 16. (1) The taxable income and the tax base shall be determined for each source of income separately according to the provisions of this Act.

Annual Tax Base

Article 25. (Supplemented, SG No. 113/2007) (1) (Previous text of Article 25, SG No 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The annual tax base in respect of the income from employment relationships shall be determined by debiting the taxable income referred to in Article 24 herein, acquired by the taxable person during the tax year, with the compulsory social insurance contributions withheld by the employer which are for the account of the natural person, according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and of the Health Insurance Act, as well as with the compulsory social insurance contributions remitted abroad, which are for the account of the natural person.

(2) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The annual tax base referred to in Paragraph (1) of any self-insured persons who have acquired any income from employment relationships referred to in Item 26 (i) of § 1 of the Supplementary Provisions herein shall furthermore be debited with the social insurance contributions which the self-insured person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and the Health Insurance Act.

(3) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The annual tax base in respect of the income acquired in a seafarer capacity shall be 10 per cent of the annual tax base as determined under Paragraph (1).

Section II

Income from Activity in Sole-Trader Capacity

Taxable Income

Article 26. (1) The taxable income accruing from activity in a sole-trader capacity shall be the taxable profit formed according to the procedure established by the Corporate Income Tax Act, including the financial result from the transfer of the sole trader's enterprise without expungement of the sole trader in the Commercial Register.

(2) The taxable income referred to in Paragraph (1) shall exclude the accounting financial result formed by activities:

1. on which alternative taxes are levied under the Corporate Income Tax Act;
2. (amended, SG No. 113/2007) on which a licence tax is levied according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act;
3. (repealed, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, new, SG No. 32/2016, effective 1.01.2017) on which a tax on passenger transport by taxi is levied according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act.

(3) Upon formation of the tax profit, sole traders shall apply the provisions on carry-forward of a tax loss under the Corporate Income Tax Act.

(4) For the purposes of determining the taxable income referred to in Paragraph (2), the portion of undistributable expenses corresponding to the activities referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be arrived at by multiplying the total amount of undistributable income/expenses by the proportion of the net income accruing from the activities referred to in Paragraph (2) and the total net turnover.

(5) Any sole traders, who carry out activities which are subject to levy of alternative tax within the meaning given by the Corporate Income Tax Act, shall be taxed under the terms and according to the procedure established by the said Act.

(6) (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The taxable income referred to in Paragraph (1) shall furthermore include any excess over the double amount, specified in a statutory instrument, of the per diem expenses of the owner of the enterprise of the sole trader.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph (6), amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) Taxability according to Paragraphs (1) to (6) shall furthermore apply to any income from economic activity accruing to a natural person who is a merchant within the meaning given by the Commerce Act but is not registered as a sole trader.

Use of Natural Person's Personal Property for Activity in Sole-Trader Capacity

Article 27. (1) Any natural person, who owns the sole trader's enterprise, may incorporate into the property of the sole trader any items of movable and immovable property acquired by the said person which:

1. are not in a co-ownership regime, or
2. are not part of matrimonial community property.

(2) The items of property referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be entered into the accounts of the sole trader at the documented cost of acquisition thereof.

(3) In the cases under Paragraph (1), the natural person who owns the sole trader shall draw up a memorandum, stating therein the type of the item of property and the cost referred to in Paragraph (2).

(4) In the cases referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph (1), the other spouse shall declare, by a notarised declaration, the consent thereof to incorporation of the item of property into the property of the sole trader.

(5) If any item of property referred to in Paragraph (1) be subsequently excluded from the property of the sole trader and passes to the natural-person owner, for tax purposes the natural person who owns the sole trader shall be deemed to effect a sale of the said item of property at a market price, notwithstanding the circumstances covered under Article 13 herein. The taxable income shall be determined as a difference between:

1. the market price and the tax value: in respect of any tax depreciable assets under the Corporate Income Tax Act;

2. the market price and the documented cost of acquisition: in respect of any other items of property.

(6) The temporary tax differences, within the meaning given by the Corporate Income Tax Act, which are related to any item of property referred to in Paragraph (1), shall be disregarded at the time of the sale referred to in Paragraph (5) and in the subsequent years.

(7) The market price referred to in Paragraph (5) shall be presumed as a cost of acquisition upon a subsequent sale or exchange of the item of property by the natural-person owner, as well as upon a subsequent application of Paragraph (2).

Annual tax base

Article 28. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) (1) The annual tax base in respect of income from economic activity in a sole-trader capacity shall be determined by debiting the taxable income referred to in Article 26 herein for the tax year with the contributions which the self-insured person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and of the Health Insurance Act, as well as with the compulsory social insurance contributions remitted abroad, which are for the account of the natural person.

(2) The annual tax base referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be debited with:

1. any personal voluntary social insurance contributions made during the year to an aggregate amount not exceeding 10 per cent of the annual tax base referred to in Paragraph (1), as well as with any personal voluntary health insurance contributions and premiums/payments remitted during the year under contracts of life assurance to an aggregate amount not exceeding 10 per cent of the annual tax base referred to in Paragraph (1);

2. the difference between BGN 7,920 and the amount of the relief enjoyed under Article 18 (1) herein, including for the year of occurrence of the loss of working capacity and for the year of expiry of validity of the decision: applicable to persons who have lost 50 per cent and more than 50 per cent of the working capacity thereof, which loss has been determined by an effective decision of a competent authority;

3. (amended, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011) the difference between the social insurance contributions under Article 9a of the Social Insurance Code made during the year and the amount of the relief enjoyed under Article 20 herein;

4. (new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) the difference between the admissible amount of the tax relief referred to in Article 22c herein and the amount of the relief enjoyed from the sum total of the annual tax bases;

5. (new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) the difference between BGN 2,000 and the amount of the tax relief referred to in Article 22d herein.

Section III Income from Other Economic Activity

Taxable Income

Article 29. (1) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, previous text of Article 29, SG No 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011) The taxable income from economic activity accruing to any natural persons who are not merchants within the meaning given by the Commerce Act shall be determined by debiting the income acquired with operating expenses as follows:

1. (new, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 100/2013 effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 12/2015) by 60 per cent for the incomes accruing from the business of production of unprocessed farmers, carried on by natural persons registered as agricultural producers, with the exception of the incomes accruing from growing of ornamental plants;

2. (renumbered from Item 1, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) by 40 per cent for:

(a) (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) any income accruing from the business of production of processed or unprocessed agricultural products (including from the sale of grown ornamental plants), of processed or unprocessed forestry products (including from the harvesting of wild herbs, mushrooms and berries), of processed or unprocessed products of hunting ground management, and of processed or unprocessed fisheries products, carried on by natural persons;

(b) any copyright and licence royalties, including for income from sale of inventions, works of science, culture and art by the authors thereof, as well as for any royalties for performance of performing artists;

(c) any income from the practice of a skilled craft on which a licence tax is not levied according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act;

(d) (new, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.01.2023) any income from the practice of liberal profession as lawyer;

3. (renumbered from Item 2, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 52/2022, effective 1.01.2023) by 25 per cent for any income from the practice of a liberal profession except Item 2(d), or any remunerations under non-employment relationships.

(2) (New, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011) The taxable income referred to in Paragraph (1) shall exclude any incomes which were involved upon the formation of taxable income according to the procedure established by Article 26 herein for prior tax years.

(3) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The taxable income referred to in Paragraph (1) shall include any incomes which, according to Article 11 herein, were acquired during a period of levy of a tax under Article 14 (2) herein and were not involved upon the formation of the accounting financial result for the year of acquisition but would have been involved upon the formation of the accounting financial result for the current year if the person were taxed according to the procedure established by Article 29a herein.

Taxation of Income from Economic Activity of Natural Persons Registered as Farmers
(Heading amended, SG No. 12/2015)

Article 29a. (New, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No. 100/2013 effective 1.01.2014) (1) (Amended, SG No. 12/2015) Any natural persons registered as farmers may opt for taxation of the income from economic activity thereof on the annual tax base under Article 28 herein.

(2) The taxable person of the persons referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be arrived at according to the procedure established by Article 26 herein, and the said income:

1. shall exclude the financial respect of any incomes which, according to Article 11 herein, have been acquired during tax years preceding the tax year as from which a tax under Article 14 (2) herein commences to be levied on the incomes and in respect of which the income arises and should be charged within the period of levy of the same tax;

2. shall include the financial result in respect of any incomes which, according to Article 11 herein, have been acquired during the period of levy of a tax under Article 14 (2) herein and which are not involved upon the formation of the accounting financial result for the year of acquisition or for subsequent years.

(3) The procedure for levy of a tax on the annual tax base under Article 28 herein, opted for by the persons referred to in Paragraph (1), shall apply for a period not shorter than five consecutive tax years.

(4) The option of the persons referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be exercised by means of submission of a declaration completed in a standard form not later than the 31st day of December of the previous year.

(5) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) Newly registered farmers shall declare the option under Paragraph (1) for the year of the registration thereof in the annual tax return under Article 50 herein for the same year.

(6) (New, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) After the expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph (3), the person may:

1. continue to be taxed according to the procedure opted for, and in such case shall not need to submit a new declaration under Paragraph (4);

2. opt to be taxed according to the procedure established by Article 29 herein, exercising the option thereof in the declaration under Paragraph (4) not later than the 31st day of December of the previous year.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph (5), SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) The persons referred to in Paragraph (1) shall apply the Accountancy Act and, to this end, shall be treated as equivalent to sole traders.

Annual tax base

Article 30. (Supplemented, SG No. 113/2007, amended, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) The annual tax base shall be determined by debiting the taxable income referred to in Article 29 herein, as acquired during the tax year, with:

1. the contributions which the self-insured person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account or, if the person is not self-insured, with the compulsory social and health insurance contributions withheld, which are for his or her own account, according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and the Health Insurance Act;

2. the compulsory social insurance contributions remitted abroad, which are for the account of the natural person;

3. the contributions which the person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by Article 40 (5) of the Health Insurance Act, where the taxable income referred to in Article 29 herein is included upon the annual balancing of the contributory income.

Section IV

Income from Rent or from Other Onerous Provision for Use of Rights or Property

Taxable Income

Article 31. (1) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) The taxable income accruing from rent or from other onerous provision for use of rights or immovable property shall be determined by debiting the income acquired with 10 per cent expenses.

(2) The payments acquired under a lease contract, which does not expressly provide for transfer of the right of ownership to the property, shall be treated as income from rent referred to in Paragraph (1).

(3) The taxable income accruing from any payments under franchising agreements and factoring contracts, as well as under other contracts for provision for use of rights, shall be determined according to the procedure established by Paragraph (1).

Annual tax base

Article 32. (Supplemented, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, SG No. 95/2015 effective 1.01.2016) ▫ The annual tax base for the income accruing to resident natural persons from rent or other onerous provision for use of rights and property shall be determined by debiting the taxable income referred to in Article 31 herein, as acquired during the tax year, with the contributions which the person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by Article 40 (5) of the Health Insurance Act, where the taxable income referred to in Article 31 herein is included upon the annual balancing of the contributory income.

Section V

Income from Transfer of Rights or Property

Taxable Income

Article 33. (1) The taxable income accruing from the sale or exchange of immovable property, including of limited rights in rem to any such property, shall be determined by debiting the positive difference between the selling price and the cost of acquisition of any such property with 10 per cent expenses.

(2) Taxable income shall be the positive difference between the selling price and the cost of acquisition upon sale or exchange of:

1. means of transport by road, air and water;
2. works of art, collectors' items and antiques.

(3) The taxable income accruing from the sale or exchange of shares, interests, compensation instruments, investment vouchers and other financial assets, as well as from trade in foreign exchange, shall be the sum total of the profits realised during the year, determined for each particular transaction, debited with the sum total of the losses realised during the year, determined for each particular transaction.

(4) The realised profit/loss referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be determined by debiting the selling price with the cost of acquisition of the financial asset. Where any financial assets of one and the same type, issued by one and the same person, have different costs of acquisition and part of the said assets is subsequently sold and it cannot be proven which part is sold, the cost of acquisition of each such asset shall be the weighted average price determined on the basis of the cost of acquisition of the financial assets of the same type and issuer held at the date of the sale.

(5) The selling price shall include everything acquired by the person in connection with the sale/exchange, including any consideration other than money.

(6) The cost of acquisition referred to in Paragraphs (1), (2) and (4) shall be:

1. the documented cost of acquisition of the property;
2. the documented cost of acquisition of the property, credited with the documented payment due by the natural person: in the cases of exchange with additional payment;

3. (supplemented, SG No. 113/2007) ▫ nil: where there is no documented cost of acquisition, including for any property acquired as a donation, or for any shares and interests received upon distribution of property or another source of owners' equity; the cost of acquisition referred to in Paragraph (1) shall furthermore be nil upon a subsequent sale or exchange of the lot referred to in Item 8, including of limited rights in rem thereto;

4. the documented additional payment due by the natural person: in the cases of exchange with additional payment, where there is no documented cost of acquisition of the property;

5. (supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) ▫ the portion of the non-cash contribution entered in the Memorandum of Incorporation, in the Memorandum of Association or in the Articles of Association of a commercial corporation, corresponding to the shares and interests sold or exchanged: in the cases of non-cash contributions made to a commercial corporation, where the contribution consists of a property the income from the sale or exchange whereof is non-taxable within the meaning given by Article 13 (1) herein at the date of entry of the contribution in the Commercial Register;

6. the market price referred to in Article 10 (4) herein of the property acquired upon exchange: in the cases of sale/exchange of property acquired upon exchange;

7. the documented cost of acquisition of the property, adjusted until 1997 inclusive for the overall consumer price index as announced by the National Statistical Institute: in the cases of sale or exchange of property acquired prior to the 1st day of January 1998;

8. (new, SG No. 113/2007) the documented cost of acquisition of the lot corresponding to the part for which a building right has been created: in the cases of creation of a building right;

9. (new, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) the documented cost of acquisition of the property whereof a non-cash contribution to a commercial corporation consists: in the cases of sale or exchange of shares and interests allotted in consideration of non-cash contributions made to a commercial corporation, with the exception of the cases referred to in Item 5;

10. (new, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) the tax value of the property at the time of expungement of the sole trader from the commercial register: in the cases of expungement of a sole trader, where the property of the enterprise has passed to the natural-person owner;

11. (new, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) where a non-cash contribution to a commercial corporation consists of any shares and interests allotted in consideration of non-cash contributions made to another commercial corporation, upon the sale or exchange of the newly acquired shares and interests, with the exception of the cases referred to in under Article 38 (7) herein, the cost of acquisition shall be the documented cost of acquisition of the property whereof the non-cash contribution originally consisted, if the income accruing from the sale or exchange of the said property was taxable within the meaning given by this Act by the date of entry of the said contribution in the Commercial Register.

(7) Where the selling price referred to in Paragraph (1) is paid by instalments in different tax years, the taxable income shall be determined according to the following formula for each of the said tax years:

$$TITY = [(SP - CA) - 0,10 \times (SP - CA)] \times \frac{PPR}{SP}$$

where:

TITY shall be the taxable income for the tax year;

SP shall be the selling price;

CA shall be the cost of acquisition;

PPR shall be the part payment received during the tax year.

(8) Where the selling price referred to in Paragraph (2) is paid by instalments in different tax years, the taxable income shall be determined according to the following formula for each of the said tax years:

$$TITY = (SP - CA) \times \frac{PPR}{SP}$$

where:

TITY shall be the taxable income for the tax year;

SP shall be the selling price;

CA shall be the cost of acquisition;

PPR shall be the part payment received during the tax year.

(9) The income received in connection with the provision of property under a lease contract which expressly provides for transfer of the right of ownership to the property shall be subject to taxation notwithstanding the circumstances covered under Article 13 herein. The taxable income shall be determined according to the following formula:

$$TITY = [(CP - CA) - 0,10 \times (CP - CA)] \times \frac{PR}{CP}$$

where:

TITY shall be the taxable income for the tax year;

CP shall be the price of the property as set under the contract;

CA shall be the cost of acquisition;

PR shall be the payments received during the tax year net of the interest paid.

(10) (New, SG No. 113/2007) Upon termination of a lease contract, which expressly provides for transfer of the right of ownership prior to the expiry of the term of validity of the contract and without transfer of the right of ownership to the movable or immovable property subject to the contract, the non-refundable lease payments shall be treated as income from use of property accruing at the time of termination. The taxable income, determined according to the procedure established by Article 31 herein, shall be debited with the taxable income determined according to the formula under Paragraph (9), and in this case "PR" shall be the sum total of the non-refundable payments under the lease contracts received during prior tax years.

(11) (Renumbered from Paragraph (10), SG No. 113/2007) The taxable income upon transfer of a sole trader's enterprise with expungement of the sole trader shall be the positive difference between the selling price as set by the contract and the owners' equity of the enterprise.

Annual tax base

Article 34. (Amended, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) The annual tax base for the income from transfer of rights or property shall be determined by debiting the taxable income referred to in Article 33 herein, as acquired during the tax year, with the contributions which the person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by Article 40 (5) of the Health Insurance Act, where the taxable income referred to in Article 33 herein is included upon the annual balancing of the contributory income.

Section VI Income from Other Sources

Taxation of Non-resident Persons' Income

Article 37. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 113/2007, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) A final tax, notwithstanding the circumstances covered under Article 13 herein, shall be levied on the income referred to in Article 8 (11) herein and the following income from a source inside Bulgaria, charged/paid in favour of any non-resident natural person, where not realised through a fixed base within the country:

1. any compensations for lost profit and damages of such nature;
2. any scholarships for study in Bulgaria and abroad;
3. (supplemented, SG No. 107/2014, effective 1.01.2015) any interest payments, including interest within payments under a lease contract except for interest on bonds or other debt securities, issued by the state or municipalities and admitted to trade in a regulated market in Bulgaria or a European Union Member State, or another State that is party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area;

4. any income from rent or from other onerous provision for use of movable or immovable property, including any payments under a lease contract which does not expressly provide for transfer of the right of ownership to the property;

5. any payments received under franchising agreements and factoring contracts;

6. any copyright and licence royalties;

7. any technical assistance fees;

8. (amended, SG No. 113/2007) any remunerations for activity performed within the territory of the country by non-resident natural persons who are public figures, or such active in science, art, culture and sports, including where the income has been paid/charged through a third party, such as a performer-management agency, a production company and other intermediaries;

9. any income from management and control, from participation in management and supervisory bodies of enterprises;

10. any income from sale, exchange or other onerous transfer of immovable property;

11. (supplemented, SG No. 113/2007) any payments under a lease contract which expressly provides for transfer of the right of ownership to immovable property;

12. any income from sale, exchange or other onerous transfer of shares, interests, compensation instruments, investment vouchers and other financial assets, with the exception of the income from exchange covered under Article 38 (5) herein.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, supplemented, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) The final tax on the income covered under Items 1 to 9 of Paragraph (1) and under Article 8 (11) herein shall be assessed on the gross sum total of the incomes charged/paid.

(3) (New, SG No. 113/2007) The final tax on the income covered under Items 10 and 11 of Paragraph (1) shall be assessed on the positive difference between the selling price and the documented cost of acquisition of the property debited with 10 per cent expenses.

(4) (New, SG No. 113/2007) The final tax on the income covered under Item 12 of Paragraph (1) shall be assessed on the positive difference between the selling price and the documented cost of acquisition of the property.

(5) (New, SG No. 113/2007) Where part of the selling price has been paid, the part of the selling price received and the part of the documented cost of acquisition corresponding to the said part shall be presumed as a selling price and a documented cost of acquisition of the property upon assessment of the final tax under Paragraphs (3) and (4).

(6) (New, SG No. 113/2007) Upon termination of a lease contract, which expressly provides for transfer of the right of ownership prior to the expiry of the term of validity of the contract and without transfer of the right of ownership to the movable or immovable property subject to the contract, the non-refundable lease payments shall be treated as income from use of property accruing to the non-resident person at the time of termination. The final tax under Items 3 and 11 of Paragraph (1), remitted until the time of termination of the lease contract, shall be deducted from the final tax due under Item 4 of Paragraph (1).

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph (3), SG No. 113/2007, amended, SG No 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) No final tax shall be levied on any income under Paragraph 1, exempted from taxation under Article 13 herein and charged/paid in favour of non-resident natural persons established for tax purposes in a Member State of the European Union or in another Member State of the European Economic Area.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph (4), SG No. 113/2007, amended, SG No 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The circumstances referred to in Paragraph (7) shall be certified to the payer of the income by a document issued by the tax administration of the State in which the person is established for tax purposes, and by a declaration by the person who has acquired the income, to the effect that the circumstances covered under Article 13 herein exist.

Recalculation of Final Tax under Article 37

Article 37a. (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) (1) Any non-resident natural person, who is a resident person for tax purposes of a Member State of the European Union or of another State that is party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, shall have the right to opt for a recalculation of the final tax on income under Article 37 herein. Where the non-resident person opts for a recalculation of the final tax, the said recalculation shall be made in respect of all incomes acquired by the person during the year which are subject to levy of a final tax under Article 37 herein.

(2) Where the non-resident person opts for a recalculation of the final tax on the incomes under Article 37 herein, the tax as recalculated shall be equal to the tax on the aggregate annual tax base or to the tax on the annual tax base under Article 28 herein which would have been due on such incomes in case the said incomes were acquired by a resident natural person. Where the non-resident person has effected any expenses associated with the incomes referred to in sentence one, whereon a tax on expenses would have been due according to the procedure established by the Corporate Income Tax Act, in case the said expenses have been effected by a resident natural person, the said tax shall be added to the sum total of the tax as recalculated.

(3) Where the amount of the final tax on income under Article 37 herein as remitted exceeds the amount of the tax as recalculated under Paragraph (2) for the same incomes, the difference shall be refundable up to the amount of the final tax under Article 37 herein which the non-resident person cannot deduct from the tax due on the said incomes in the State where the said person is resident for tax purposes.

(4) The option of recalculation of the final tax under Article 37 herein shall be exercised by means of submission of the annual tax return under Article 50 herein. All other incomes subject to declaring by the non-resident natural person shall also be included in the tax return.

(5) The refund of tax under Paragraph (3) shall follow the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(6) Paragraphs (1) to (5) shall not apply in the cases where the non-resident person is resident for tax purposes of State that is party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area but which is not a Member State of the European Union wherewith the Republic of Bulgaria:

1. does not have an effective convention for the avoidance of double taxation, or
2. has an effective convention for the avoidance of double taxation which does not provide for:
 - (a) exchange of information, or
 - (b) cooperation in tax collection.

Income of Resident and Non-resident Natural Persons

Article 38. (1) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) A final tax shall be levied on the taxable income from:

1. dividends in favour of a sole trader;
2. dividends and liquidation shares in favour of:
 - (a) any resident or non-resident natural person, where accruing thereto from a source inside Bulgaria;
 - (b) any resident natural person, where accruing thereto from a source outside Bulgaria.

(2) The final tax on any income from dividends shall be assessed on the gross sum total as determined by the decision on the distribution of dividend.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, SG No. 96/2019, effective 1.01.2020) The final tax on any income from dividends in the form of a hidden profit distribution shall be assessed on the gross sum of the amounts constituting a hidden profit distribution.

(4) The final tax on share in any income from shares in a liquidation surplus shall be assessed on the positive difference between the value of the said share and the documented cost of acquisition of the participating interest in the company/cooperative.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) A final tax shall be levied on any taxable income acquired from exchange of shares and interests in connection with transformation of corporations under Section II of Chapter Nineteen of the Corporate Income Tax Act:

1. by resident natural persons upon the exchange of shares and interests in domestic commercial corporations for shares and interests in domestic commercial corporations or in commercial corporations abroad;
2. by resident natural persons upon the exchange of shares and interests in commercial corporations abroad for shares and interests in commercial corporations abroad or in domestic commercial corporations;
3. by non-resident natural persons upon the exchange of shares and interests in domestic commercial corporations for shares and interests in domestic commercial corporations or in commercial corporations abroad.

(6) The taxable income referred to in Paragraph (5) shall be determined at the time of the exchange and shall be the positive difference between the market price of the shares/interests acquired upon the exchange and the cost of acquisition under Article 33 (6) herein of the shares or interests in the transforming corporation.

(7) The market price referred to in Paragraph (6) shall be presumed to be a cost of acquisition under Article 33 (6) herein upon a subsequent sale or exchange of the shares and interests in the acquiring/newly established corporation, as well as upon a subsequent application of Paragraph (6).

(8) A final tax shall be levied on the gross sum total of the taxable income from supplementary voluntary social insurance, from voluntary health insurance and life assurances, acquired at the date of:

1. recovery of the amounts remitted for life assurances;
2. recovery of the amounts remitted for voluntary health insurance, with the exception of the cases of refund of expenses on health services and provision of health services and goods to the insured person upon occurrence of the events provided for in the contracts of health insurance;
3. receipt of the amounts remitted for supplementary voluntary social insurance prior to attainment of entitlement to supplementary pension;
4. transfer of amounts from an individual account to the account of a third party;
5. modification of the contract of insurance, in respect of which a relief under Article 19 herein has been enjoyed, into a contract for which the said relief may not be enjoyed;
6. drawing on the amounts under a contract for assurance for repayment of a loan, where a life assurance is used to secure an obligation of the natural person.

(9) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) No final tax shall be levied on any income referred to in Paragraph (8), corresponding to the portion of the payments/premiums for which a tax relief has not been enjoyed according to the procedure established by Article 19 or Item 12 of Article 24 (2) herein.

(10) A final tax shall be levied on the gross sum total of the income acquired by the person upon the sale or exchange of movable property under Item 2 (d) of Article 13 (1) herein.

(11) (New, SG No. 19/2011, effective 8.03.2011) A final tax shall be levied on the taxable income acquired by a member of the cooperative from interest on loans granted by the cooperative.

(12) (New, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) A final tax shall be levied on any income from rent or other onerous provision of property having a condominium project status, managed in the form of a general meeting of owners, which has been charged/paid by enterprises and self-insured persons.

(13) (New, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013, amended, SG No. 105/2014 effective 1.01.2015, repealed, SG No. 17/2022, effective 1.04.2022).

(14) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) A final tax shall be levied on the gross sum total of any cash prizes and merchandise awards awarded at competitions and contests which are not provided by an employer or a commissioning entity.

(15) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) A final tax shall be levied on the gross sum total of the taxable income acquired by natural persons not registered as farmers, received in the form of State aids, subsidies and other support from the European Agricultural Guarantee Fund, the European [Agricultural] Fund for Rural Development and from the State budget.

Chapter Seven

TRANSITION FROM LEVY OF LICENCE TAX TO TAXATION ACCORDING TO THE STANDARD PROCEDURE

(Heading amended, SG No. 113/2007)

Taxation of Income from Licence Activity according to Standard Procedure

Article 39. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) (1) Where the grounds for levy of a licence tax according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act lapse within the current tax year, the income accruing to the natural persons, including the sole traders, for the current tax year shall be taxed according to the standard procedure established by this Act.

(2) In the cases referred to in Paragraph (1), the natural persons, including the sole traders, shall not be liable to make tax prepayments for the current year within the meaning given by this Act.

(3) Where any one person deregisters under the Value Added Tax Act within the current tax year, the said person shall be taxed according to the standard procedure established by this Act for the entire tax year.

Deduction of Licence Tax

Article 40. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) (1) In the cases referred to in Article 39 (1) herein, the licence tax, due and remitted according to the procedure established by the Local Taxes and Fees Act as of the date of submission of the declaration on lapse of the grounds for levy of a licence tax, shall be deducted from the tax on the aggregate annual tax base or from the tax on the annual tax base in respect of income from economic activity in a sole-trader capacity.

(2) The amount of the licence tax under Paragraph (1) shall be certified by a document issued by the competent municipality.

PART FOUR TAX RATES. TAX ASSESSMENT, WITHHOLDING AND REMITTANCE. DECLARING (Heading amended, SG No. 113/2007).□

Chapter Eight WITHHOLDING OF TAX PREPAYMENTS

Withholding of Tax Prepayments on Income from Employment Relationships

Article 42. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) (1) The tax prepayment on income from employment relationships shall be determined by the employer monthly on the basis of a monthly tax base.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The monthly tax base shall be arrived at by debiting the tax base referred to in Article 24 herein, as charged for the relevant month, with the compulsory social insurance contributions, withheld by the employer, which are for the account of the natural person, according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and the Health Insurance Act or for compulsory social insurance abroad. The monthly tax base of any self-insured persons in respect of any income from employment relationships referred to in Item 26 (i) of § 1 of the Supplementary Provisions herein shall be determined by debiting the taxable income under Article 24 herein, charged for the respective month, with the social insurance contributions remitted in advance which the self-insured person is obliged to make for the tax year for his or her own account according to the procedure established by the Social Insurance Code and the Health Insurance Act.

(3) The monthly tax base shall be debited with:

1. the tax relief for reduced working capacity referred to in Article 18 (2) herein;
2. the tax relief referred to in Article 19 (2) herein, where the amounts have been withheld by the employer upon payment of the income from an employment relationship.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The amount of the tax due shall be arrived at by multiplying the monthly tax base referred to in Paragraph (3) by a tax rate of 10 per cent and, in respect of any income acquired in a seafarer capacity, by a tax rate of 1 per cent.

(5) The tax referred to in Paragraph (4) shall be withheld by the employer upon the final payment of the taxable income charged for the relevant month.

(6) Where only part payments for the relevant month or another month have been made during the relevant month, the employer shall remit the tax referred to in Paragraph (4) determined on the gross amount of the sum total of the part payments.

(7) The tax remitted by the employer under Paragraph (6) shall not be withheld from the part payment but shall be deducted from the tax withheld under Paragraph (5).

(8) (Amended, SG No. 94/2012, effective 1.01.2013) Paragraph (6) shall not apply to part payments for the relevant month, where the full amount of the income from an employment relationship as charged by the employer for the said month is paid until the 25th day of the next succeeding month.

(9) The tax referred to in Paragraphs (1) to (8) shall be remitted within the time limits and according to the procedure established by Articles 65 and 66 herein.

Tax Prepayment on Income from Economic Activity

Article 43. (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) (1) Any person, who has acquired income from economic activity referred to in Article 29 herein, shall be liable to make a tax prepayment on the difference between the taxable income and the contributions which the self-insured person is obliged to make for the account thereof for the months of the quarter during which the taxable income was acquired, and if the person is not self-insured, on the difference between the taxable income and the compulsory social insurance contributions withheld.

(2) Any person, who has lost 50 per cent and more than 50 per cent of the working capacity thereof, shall be liable to make a tax prepayment on income from economic activity referred to in Article 29 herein after the taxable income of the person acquired from all sources of income since the beginning of the tax year and subject to levy of a tax on the aggregate annual tax base, debited with the compulsory social insurance contributions withheld from or paid for the account of the person, exceeds BGN 7,920.

(3) The amount of the tax due shall be calculated by multiplying the difference referred to in Paragraph (1) by a tax rate of 10 per cent.

(4) Where the payer of the income from economic activity is an enterprise or a self-insured person, the amount of the tax shall be determined and the tax shall be withheld by the payer of the income upon the payment of the income.

(5) Paragraph (4) shall not apply where the person acquiring the income is a self-insured person within the meaning given by the Social Insurance Code and declares this circumstance by a written declaration to the payer of the income.

(6) Where the payer of the income from economic activity is not an enterprise or a self-insured person, as well as where the person acquiring the income is a self-insured person and has declared this circumstance to the payer of the income, the amount of the income shall be determined and the tax shall be remitted by the person who has acquired the income.

(7) The tax referred to in Paragraph (3) shall be remitted within the time limits and according to the procedure established by Articles 65 to 68 herein.

(8) (Supplemented, SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.05.2011, SG No. 97/2016 effective 1.01.2017, amended, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) Any persons, who or which carry out economic activity in a merchant capacity within the meaning given by the Commerce Act, including any sole traders, as well as any natural persons in the cases referred to in Article 29a herein, shall remit tax prepayments at the rate of 15 per cent under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Corporate Income Tax Act.

(9) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 40/2012) In the cases under Paragraph (2), the person acquiring the income shall certify the extent of reduced working capacity by an expert decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board, valid at the date/dates of payment of the income, a copy of which decision shall be presented on a single occasion to the payer of the income, where the said payer is obliged to withhold and remit the tax.

Tax Prepayment on Income from Rent or from Other Onerous Provision for Use of Rights or Property

Article 44. (1) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007) Any person, who has acquired income from rent or from other onerous provision for use of rights or property, shall be liable to make a tax prepayment on the difference between the taxable income under Article 31 herein and the social insurance contributions which the person is obliged to make for the own account thereof.

(2) (New, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) Any person who has lost 50 per cent and more than 50 per cent of the working capacity thereof, shall be liable to make a tax prepayment on income from rent or from other onerous provision for use of rights or property after the taxable income of the person acquired from all sources of income since the beginning of the tax year and subject to levy of a tax on the aggregate annual tax base, debited with the compulsory social insurance contributions withheld from or paid for the account of the person, exceeds BGN 7,920.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 113/2007, renumbered from Paragraph (2), SG No 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009) The amount of the tax due shall be arrived at by multiplying the difference referred to in Paragraph (1) by a tax rate of 10 per cent

(4) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) Where the payer of the income from rent or from other onerous provision for use of rights or property is an enterprise or a self-insured person, the amount of the tax shall be determined and the tax shall be withheld by the payer of the income upon the payment of the income. In such cases, the amount of the prepayment due shall be arrived at by multiplying the taxable income referred to in Article 31 herein by a tax rate of 10 per cent.

(5) (New, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011, amended, SG No. 40/2012) In the cases under Paragraph (2), the person acquiring the income shall certify the extent of reduced working capacity by an expert decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board, valid at the date/dates of payment of the income, a copy of which decision shall be presented on a single occasion to the payer of the income where the said payer is obliged to withhold and remit the tax.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph (3), amended, SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009, renumbered from Paragraph (4), amended, SG No. 94/2010, effective 1.01.2011) The tax referred to in Paragraphs (3) and (4) shall be remitted within the time limits and according to the procedure established by Articles 65 to 68 herein.

Tax Prepayment on Income from Other Sources under Article 35

Article 44a. (New, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) (1) A tax prepayment shall be levied on the cash income referred to in Article 35 herein, where the payer of the income is an enterprise or a self-insured person. The amount of the tax shall be calculated by multiplying the taxable income referred to in Article 35 herein by a tax rate of 10 per cent.

(2) The tax prepayment referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be determined and withheld by the payer of the income upon the payment of the income.

(3) Where the recipient of the income referred to in Article 35 herein is a person who has lost 50 per cent and more than 50 per cent of the working capacity thereof, a tax prepayment under Paragraph (1) shall be due after the taxable income of the person acquired from all sources of income since the beginning of the tax year and subject to levy of tax on the aggregate annual tax base, debited with the compulsory social insurance contributions withheld from or paid for the account of the person, exceeds BGN 7,920. In such cases, the person acquiring the income shall certify the extent of reduced working capacity by an expert decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board, valid at the date/dates of payment of the income, a copy of which decision shall be presented on a single occasion to the payer of the income, where the said payer is obliged to withhold and remit the tax.

(4) The tax referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be remitted within the time limits and according to the procedure established by Articles 65 and 66 herein.

(6) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 105/2014 effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 12/2015) Any persons registered as farmers shall be allowed to retain up to 60 per cent of the tax on the annual tax base in respect of any income from economic activity in a sole-trader capacity, applicable to the annual tax base in respect of the business of production of unprocessed plant and animal produce under the terms established by the Corporate Income Tax Act for corporation tax retention in the form of a tax relief constituting State aid for agricultural producers.

(7) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No 100/2013, effective 1.01.2014, amended, SG No. 12/2015, SG No. 22/2015, effective 1.01.2014) The tax retention under Paragraph (6), constituting State aid for farmers, shall not apply with regard to:

1. any person which is an undertaking in difficulty;
2. any person which is a large enterprise;
3. any natural person carrying out economic activity under Article 29a herein;
4. any person which has not implemented a decision of the European Commission on recovery of any unlawful and incompatible State aid received and has not recovered the aid in full;
5. any investments into irrigation.

(8) (New, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended, SG No. 98/2018 effective 1.01.2019) The tax referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be rounded down to the nearest whole lev after the deductions referred to in Paragraphs (3) to (6), where a rebate is not enjoyed, or after a rebate has been enjoyed.

Annual Tax on Income from Employment Relationships

Article 49. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Not later than the 31st day of January of the following tax year, the employer shall calculate the annual tax base referred to in Article 25 (1) and (3) herein, debited according to the procedure established by Paragraph (3), and shall determine the annual amount of the tax where the said employer is an employer under the principal employment relationship of the factory or office worker at the 31st day of December of the tax year.

(2) Where the factory or office worker has or has had an employment contract for additional work with another employer or has had a principal employment relationship with another employer during the tax year, the employer referred to in Paragraph (1) shall include the income acquired at the other employer upon calculation of the annual tax base and shall determine the annual amount of the tax if the factory or office worker submits thereto a certificate referred to in Article 45 herein from the other employer.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The annual tax base referred to in Article 25 (1) and (3) herein shall be debited with the annual amount of:

1. the tax reliefs referred to in Articles 19 and 22 herein, where the amounts have been withheld by the employer upon payment of the income from an employment relationship;
2. (amended, SG No. 113/2007, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) the tax reliefs referred to in Articles 18, 20, 22c and 22d herein.

(4) Paragraph (3) shall apply where the factory or office worker provides to the employer, within a period commencing on the 30th day of November and ending on the 31st day of December of the tax year, the following documents:

1. a copy of a valid decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board: in respect of the tax relief referred to in Article 18 herein;
2. copies of the contracts with the commercial insurance/social insurance company: in respect of the tax relief referred to in Article 19 herein;
3. copies of the documents certifying the contributions made: in respect of the tax relief referred to in Article 20 herein;
4. (repealed, SG No. 113/2007);
5. copies of documents certifying that the donee is among the persons listed in Article 22 herein and that the gift has been received: in respect of the tax relief covered under Article 22 herein;
6. (new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) a declaration under Article 22c (8) herein, including the attachments thereto: in respect of the tax relief referred to in Article 22c herein;

7. (new, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015) a copy of a valid decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board and a declaration under Article 22d (7) herein, including the attachments thereto: in respect of the tax relief referred to in Article 22d herein;

8. (new, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) a written declaration to the effect that the declarant does not incur any public obligations subject to coercive enforcement by the time of submission of the declaration to the employer or that the declarant will submit an annual tax return for the tax year.

(5) Where the annual amount of the tax as determined exceeds the amount of the tax withheld from the factory or office worker during the year, the balance shall be withheld from the person not later than the 31st day of January of the following year.

(6) Where the annual amount of the tax as determined is less than the amount of the tax prepayments withheld, the employer shall refund the balance to the person not later than the 31st day of January of the following year.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 95/2015, effective 1.01.2016) The amount refunded under Paragraph (6) shall be set off from the employer successively against the succeeding payments to the State budget in respect of taxes on income from employment relationships of the person or of other persons.

(8) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) Any income from employment relationships referred to in Item 26 (i) of § 1 of the Supplementary Provisions herein shall be excluded upon determination of the annual tax base and of the annual tax according to the procedure established by the foregoing paragraphs.

Excuse from Obligation to Submit Annual Tax Return

Article 52. (1) (Previous text of Article 52, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The obligation to submit an annual tax return shall not apply to any persons who have received solely:

1. (amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) income from employment relationships, where the person has an employer under a principal employment relationship at the 31st day of December of the tax year and the said employer has determined the annual amount of the tax for all incomes from employment relationships acquired during the tax year and the full amount of the tax for the tax year has been withheld until the 31st day of January of the following year, and/or

2. (new, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) income from employment relationships where the person does not have an employer under a principal employment relationship at the 31st day of December of the tax year or does have such an employer but the said employer has not determined an annual amount of the tax in respect of all incomes from employment relationships acquired during the tax year, if the following conditions are simultaneously fulfilled:

(a) the tax on the aggregate annual tax base is equal to the tax prepayment under Article 42 herein, and

(b) the person does not enjoy any tax reliefs according to the procedure established by Article 23 herein, and/or;

3. (amended, SG No. 113/2007, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010 renumbered from Item 2, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended, SG No 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) non-taxable income, with the exception of such referred to in Item 29 of Article 13 (1) herein, and/or

4. (supplemented, SG No. 113/2007, renumbered from Item 3, SG No 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) income on which a final tax is leviable under Article 38 herein, with the exception of the income referred to in Item 3 of Article 50 (1) herein, and/or

5. (supplemented, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, renumbered from Item 4, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012) income accruing to non-resident persons, on which a final tax has been levied, with the exception of the cases referred to in Article 37a herein.

(2) (New, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 99/2011 effective 1.01.2012) Notwithstanding the circumstances referred to in Paragraph (1), resident natural persons shall be obliged to submit an annual tax return in the cases referred to in Items 4 - 5 of Article 50 (1) and Article 50 (3) herein.

Time Limit for and Manner of Submission of Annual Tax Return

Article 53. (Supplemented, SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012, amended, SG No 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 97/2016, effective 1.01.2017) (1) (Amended, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, supplemented, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) The annual tax return shall be submitted from the 10th day of January until the 30th day of April of the year following the year of acquisition of the income except for the annual tax return for the persons referred to in Article 51 (1) herein, which shall be submitted from the 1st day of March until the 30th day of June of the year next succeeding the year of acquisition of the income.

(2) Upon detection of any error in the data and circumstances as declared, the tax base and the liability for tax as determined after the expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph (1), the taxable persons shall have the right, on a single occasion not later than the 30th day of September of the year following the year of acquisition of the income, to make changes by means of submission of a new return.

(3) In the cases referred to in Article 50 (9) herein, the annual tax return may be submitted even after the expiry of the time limit referred to in Paragraph (1) but not later than six months after the opening of the succession.

(4) Any income whereof the legal or testamentary heirs became aware after the expiry of the time limits referred to in Paragraphs (1) and (3) shall be declared within one month after the awareness. In such cases, the tax due shall be recalculated.

(5) Where a return under Article 50 (9) herein has not been submitted, the liability may be ascertained by an instrument under Article 106 of the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 97/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019, SG No. 104/2020, effective 1.01.2021) Any person, who submits the annual tax return on or before the 31st day of March of the next succeeding year by electronic means, shall enjoy a rate rebate of 5 per cent of the balance of tax due under Article 48 (1) and (2) herein, provided that the said person does not incur any public obligations subject to coercive enforcement by the time of submission of the return and the balance of tax is remitted not later than the 31st day of March. The aggregate amount of the rate rebate enjoyed for the taxes under Article 48 (1) and (2) herein may not exceed BGN 500.

(7) (New, SG No. 98/2018, effective 1.01.2019) The annual tax return of self-insured persons within the meaning given by the Social Insurance Code shall be submitted by electronic means only.

Place of Submission of Annual Tax Return

Article 54. (1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The annual tax return shall be submitted to the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate exercising competence over the permanent address of the natural person, including the sole trader, who is liable for the tax.

(2) (New, SG No. 113/2007) In the cases referred to in Article 50 (8) herein, the annual tax return shall be submitted to the National Revenue Agency territorial directorate exercising competence over the permanent address of the person who has not attained the age of 14 years, who has attained the age of 14 years but has not attained the age of 18 years, and who is interdicted.

Chapter Fourteen APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF OTHER LAWS

Priority Application of Tax Convention or Another International Treaty

Article 75. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of any tax convention or another international treaty, which has been ratified by the Republic of Bulgaria, has been promulgated and has entered into force, and any provisions of this Act, the provisions of the relevant tax convention or treaty shall prevail.

Foreign Tax Credit

Article 76. (1) Outside the cases referred to in Article 75 herein, upon assessment of the income tax any resident natural person shall be allowed foreign tax credit in respect of identical or similar foreign taxes levied abroad by the respective competent authorities.

(2) Any person referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be allowed foreign tax credit in respect of all taxes on dividends, interest, copyright and licence royalties, technical assistance fees and rents as paid from sources abroad.

(3) The foreign tax credit referred to in Paragraph (2) shall be determined for each State and for each type of income separately and shall be limited to the amount of the Bulgarian income tax which would have been due on such foreign-source income if applied to a domestic-source income.

(4) Where necessary, the Minister of Finance may:

1. determine which taxes are identical or similar to the income tax on natural persons;
2. specify the origin and the particular amount of the domestic-source or foreign-source income accruing from the respective source;
3. disallow foreign tax credit in respect of such foreign taxes whereby the credit has been wrongfully increased.

Prevention of Tax Evasion

Article 77. Upon determination of the liabilities of persons under this Act in the cases of transactions between related parties, of transactions concluded under terms and conditions whereof the fulfilment leads to an evasion of taxation and application of market prices, transfers related to a fixed base, as well as interest arising from a financial lease, the provisions of the Corporate Income Tax Act on prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to tax shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(SG No. 113/2007, effective 1.01.2008)

§ 48. (1) A final tax under Article 38 (8) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act shall be levied on the gross amount of taxable incomes from life assurance acquired on the date of modification of the contract of insurance, in respect of which a relief under Article 19 herein has been enjoyed according to the procedure of the Personal Income Tax Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 118 of 1997; modified by Constitutional Court Decision No. 6 of 1998, promulgated in No. 35 of 1998; amended in Nos. 71 and 153 of 1998, Nos. 50, 103 and 111 of 1999, No. 105 of 2000, No. 110 of 2001, Nos. 40, 45, 61 and 118 of 2002, Nos. 42, 67, 95 and 112 of 2003, Nos. 36, 37, 53, 70 and 108 of 2004, Nos. 43, 102, 103 and 105 of 2005, Nos. 17, 63 and 102 of 2006; repealed in No. 95 of 2006) as repealed, into a contract in respect of which a tax relief under Article 19 of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act is enjoyable.

(2) A final tax shall not be levied on the income referred to in Article 38 (8) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act, corresponding to the portion of the payments/premiums, for which a tax relief has not been enjoyed under the Personal Income Tax Act as repealed.

§ 49. The reliefs for durably reduced working capacity, as provided for in the Act, shall be enjoyable for life where the period of validity of the expert decision of the Territorial Medical Expert Board/National Medical Expert Board has not expired at the 31st day of December 2004 and the person has attained the age of 65 years before that date or within the period of validity of the expert decision.

§ 50. (1) The income referred to in Article 33 (3) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act, in respect of which the date of transfer of ownership precedes the 1st day of January 2007, shall be deemed to be acquired on the date determined in Article 11 (1) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act.

(2) The income referred to in Article 33 (11) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act, in respect of which the date of the judgment of court on the transfer precedes the 1st day of January 2007, shall be deemed to be acquired on the date determined in Article 11 (1) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act.

§ 51. (1) The provisions of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act or of the Personal Income Tax Act as repealed shall apply to any liabilities for a final annual (licence) tax which have been incurred until the 31st day of December 2007 inclusive, and the said liabilities shall be ascertained, secured and collected according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Code by the authorities of the National Revenue Agency.

(2) Any proceedings for ascertainment, securing and collection of liabilities for a final annual (licence) tax, initiated by the 31st day of December 2007, shall be completed by the authorities of the National Revenue Agency.

§ 52. This Act shall enter into force as from the 1st day of January 2008.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act

(SG No. 106/2008, effective 1.01.2009)

§ 19. The statement referred to in Article 73 (1) on the income paid to natural persons during the tax year 2008 shall also include the income covered under Article 38 (1), paid during the same year, when the said income is not included in a statement on prior tax years.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act

(SG No. 95/2009, effective 1.01.2010, supplemented, SG No. 99/2009, effective 1.01.2010, amended, SG No. 100/2013, effective 1.01.2014, SG No. 58/2017, effective 18.07.2017)

§ 24. Where any income referred to in Item 26 (i) of § 1 of the Supplementary Provisions [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] has been charged but unpaid until the 31st day of December 2009, the amount of the tax prepayment due shall be determined according to the procedure established by Article 42 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] on the basis of the monthly tax base determined in respect of the income paid during the month concerned.

§ 25. Article 51 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons] shall furthermore apply in respect of the annual activity report for 2009. Annual financial statements for 2009 and auditor's reports thereto shall not be submitted to the National Revenue Agency.

§ 26. Tax retention under Article 48 (6) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] shall apply after the European Commission adopts a positive decision on compatibility with the State aids rules. Provided that the European Commission adopts a positive decision until the 31st day of March 2011, retention may be applied for 2010 as well. Retention of tax prepayments of agricultural producers shall be inadmissible until the date of the positive decision of the European Commission.

§ 27. (Amended, SG No. 58/2017, effective 18.07.2017) The administrator of the State aid referred to in Article 48 (6) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] shall be the Minister of Agriculture, Food and Forestry. The Minister of Agriculture, Food and Forestry shall notify the European Commission according to the procedures established in the State Aids Act.

§ 28. (Amended, SG No. 100/2013, effective 1.01.2014) The tax relief referred to in Article 48 (6) shall be enjoyable until the 31st day of December 2013 inclusive in respect of the tax on the annual tax base under Article 28 herein for 2013.

§ 29. The tax prepayment on income from employment relationships of seafarers, charged after the 31st day of December 2009 for prior tax years, shall be determined according to the procedure established by Article 42 (4) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act], effective at the date whereat the income was charged.

§ 29a. (New, SG No. 99/2009, effective 1.01.2010) The loans of money referred to in Item 5 of Article 50 (1) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] shall likewise be declared by the annual tax return under Article 50 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] for 2009.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act

(SG No. 31/2011, effective 1.01.2011)

§ 15. The incomes accruing from the business of production of unprocessed plant and animal produce, carried on by natural persons registered as tobacco producers and agricultural producers, including such carrying out activity in a sole-trader capacity, with the exception of the incomes accruing from growing of ornamental plants, paid in 2010 in the form of State aids, subsidies and other support from the European Agricultural Guarantee Fund, the European [Agricultural] Fund for Rural Development and the State budget, shall be excluded from the taxable income under Article 29 and

Article 26 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] and shall not be subject to levy of a tax where the said incomes are for 2009 or for previous years. The said incomes shall be declared in the annual tax return under Article 50 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] for 2010, being stated with Code 10 in Schedule 3 and 3a, Part 1, Table 1.

§ 16. The declaration referred to in Article 29a (4) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act], whereby the persons referred to in Article 29a (3) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] exercise the option thereof for 2011, shall be submitted not later than on the 31st day of May 2011.

§ 17. (1) Registered tobacco producers and agricultural producers, regardless of the registration thereof under the Value Added Tax Act, may opt to have the taxable income thereof for 2010 determined under Article 26 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] and to be taxed on the annual tax base under Article 28 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act].

(2) The option referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be declared in the annual tax return under Article 50 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] for 2010, and if such a return has been submitted prior to the promulgation of this Act in the State Gazette, the said option shall be declared by means of submission of a new declaration not later than the 30th day of April 2011.

§ 22. This Act shall enter into force as from the 1st day of January 2011, with the exception of § 8 herein, which shall enter into force as from the beginning of the month following the month of promulgation of this Act in the State Gazette.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act

(SG No. 99/2011, effective 1.01.2012)

§ 17. Any income from rent or other onerous provision of property having a condominium project status, managed in the form of a general meeting of owners, which has been charged but was unpaid until the 31st day of December 2011, shall be taxed according to the procedure established by Article 38 (12) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] upon the payment of the said income.

§ 18. The incomes accruing from the business of production of unprocessed plant and animal produce, carried on by natural persons registered as tobacco producers and agricultural producers, including such carrying out activity in a sole-trader capacity, with the exception of the incomes accruing from growing of ornamental plants, paid in 2011 in the form of State aids, subsidies and other support from the European Agricultural Guarantee Fund, the European [Agricultural] Fund for Rural Development and the State budget, shall be excluded from the taxable income under Articles 26 and 29 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] and shall not be subject to levy of a tax where the said incomes are for 2009 or for previous years. The said incomes shall be declared in the annual tax return under Article 50 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] for the respective year.

§ 19. Article 48 (8), Article 52 (1) and (2) and Article 53 (4) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] shall furthermore apply to the taxation of income for 2011.

§ 21. This Act shall enter into force as from the 1st day of January 2012, with the exception of § 1 herein, which shall enter into force as from the day of promulgation of the said Act in the State Gazette.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Value Added Tax Act

§ 58. The incomes accruing from the business of unprocessed plant and animal produce, carried on by natural persons registered as tobacco producers and agricultural producers, including such carrying out activity in a sole-trader capacity, with the exception of the incomes accruing from growing of ornamental plants, paid in 2012 in the form of State aids, subsidies and other support from the European Agricultural Guarantee Fund, from the European [Agricultural] Fund for Rura Development and from the State budget, shall be excluded from the taxable income under Articles 26 and 29 of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act and shall not be subject to levy of a tax where the said incomes are for 2009 or for previous years. The said incomes shall be declared in the annual tax return under Article 50 of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act for 2012.

§ 59. The final tax remitted in the fourth quarter of 2012 for income charged/paid to non-resident persons under Chapter Six of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act shall be declared within the time limits and according to the procedure effective as at the 31st day of December 2012, referred to in Section II of Chapter Eleven of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act.

§ 60. The taxes due on income charged/paid to natural persons until the 31st day of December 2012, which are subject to remittance after the 1st day of January 2013, as well as the taxes due but unremitted as at the 31st day of December 2012, shall likewise be declared according to the procedure established by Section II of Chapter Eleven of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act. The time limit for submission of the tax return under Article 55 (1) of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act for taxes due but unremitted as at the 31st day of December 2012 shall be the 31st day of July 2013.

§ 65. This Act shall enter into force as from the 1st day of January 2013, with the exception of Item 2 (a), Items 3, 4 and 6 of § 61 herein, Item 7 of § 61 herein in respect of Article 86 (7) [of the Value Added Tax Act], and Item 9 of § 61 and § 64 herein, which shall enter into force as from the day of promulgation of this Act in the State Gazette, Item 5 of § 61 herein, Item 7 of § 61 herein in respect of Article 86 (5) and (6) [of the Value Added Tax Act], and Item 8 of § 61 herein, which shall enter into force as from the 1st day of April 2013, and Item 9 (c) of § 47 herein in respect of Article 159 (5) [of the Value Added Tax Act] and Item 11 of § 47 herein, which shall enter into force as from the 1st day of July 2013.

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

to the Act to Amend and Supplement the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act

(SG No. 100/2013, effective 1.01.2014, amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015,

.....

§ 11. The declaration referred to in Article 29a (4) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act], whereby the persons registered under the Value Added Tax Act referred to in Article 29a (1) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] exercise the option thereof for 2014, shall be submitted not later than on the 31st day of January 2014.

§ 12. The incomes accruing from the business of production of unprocessed plant and animal produce, carried on by natural persons registered as tobacco producers and agricultural producers, including such carrying out activity in a sole-trader capacity, with the exception of the incomes accruing from growing of ornamental plants, paid in 2013 in the form of State aids, subsidies and other support from the European Agricultural Guarantee Fund, the European [Agricultural] Fund for Rural Development and the State Budget, shall be excluded from the taxable income under Articles 26 and 29 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] and shall not be subject to levy of a tax where the said incomes are for 2009 or for previous years. The said income shall be declared in the annual tax return under Article 50 of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act for 2013.

§ 13. (Amended, SG No. 105/2014, effective 1.01.2015, SG No. 22/2015, effective 1.01.2014) (1) The tax relief under Article 48 (6) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] may be enjoyed until the 31st day of December 2020 only after obtaining a receipt with the final identification number of the aid from the European Commission in accordance with Commission Regulation (EU) No. 702/2014 of 25 June 2014 declaring certain categories of aid in the agricultural and forestry sectors and in rural areas compatible with the internal market in application of Articles 107 and 108 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and repealing Commission Regulation (EU) 1857/2006. In case the receipt from the European Commission is obtained prior to the 31st day of March 2015, the tax relief may be applied to 2014. Retention of tax prepayment of a tax on the annual tax base under Article 28 [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] by farmers shall be inadmissible until the date of obtaining the receipt from the European Commission with the final identification number of the aid.

(2) The tax relief referred to in Article 48 (6) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] shall constitute a fiscal successor scheme within the meaning of the Regulation referred to in Paragraph (1), because that activity is already covered by a prior scheme in the form of a tax relief and therefore it shall be permissible for the investing in assets under Article 48 (6) [of the Income Taxes on Natural Persons Act] to have commenced even prior to obtaining the receipt from the European Commission with the final identification number of the aid, but after the 31st day of December 2013.

§ 14. This Act shall enter into force as from the 1st day of January 2014.
